

Oregon Seacoast

COLOR BY WALT DYKE

PACIFIC OCEAN SEACOAST — Pounding surf, sparkling sands and a profusion of native flowers make the coastal region of Oregon a mecca for the tourist who seeks natural beauty at its loveliest.

 Dear Vickie & Jim,

Jerry & I are at Cannon Beach attending a Bible Conference this week and I have been here most of the week. The weather has been perfect. We went for a picnic to Indian Beach this noon. We have a meeting tonight & tomorrow and a concert. I heard a man from England who was wonderful. Hope you two are fine. Love,
 Frances
